

Biography

H.T. Sanchez, Ed.D. is the Superintendent, Interim, for the Ector County Independent School District. He is responsible for the oversight, coordination, and management of the district's executive leadership team.

Sanchez has worked in public education for 15 years and has been an elementary, middle, and high school principal. He has also served as a district level Bilingual/ESL Services Director and Instructional Support Services Executive Director at Tyler ISD and as Accountability, Special Populations Assistant Superintendent, and Chief of Staff/Deputy Superintendent for ECISD.

He has made scholarly contributions at international and state level conferences, presented research studies to universities, and has been published on educational topics.

Sanchez also serves as an adjunct professor for Texas A & M University-Commerce where he teaches graduate level school law and doctoral level ethics and philosophy. He holds a Doctorate of Education from Texas A&M University-Commerce, a Master of Education from Sul Ross State University, and a Bachelor of Arts from Angelo State University.

