Primary Election: Ballots remaining to be tabulated

PHOENIX – Arizona’s counties continue to tabulate ballots from the 2014 Primary Election. The following table details the ballots left to be counted, including early and provisional ballots.

State law gives the counties five business days, until the end of Wednesday, September 3, to verify and process the remaining early and provisional ballots. A state canvass to certify official election results for federal, statewide and legislative races is scheduled for September 8.
